

Contents

Introduction	9
STUDIES AND ANALYSIS
Marek Kochan
Verbal communication and creating a political image	13
Jacek Wasilewski, Tomasz Olczyk
A model of story-telling as a political marketing tool	36
Dotota Piontek
Privatization of politics. A family politician	54
Marek Mazur
From party representative to dominant element of a party brand image – review of strategic personalisation types in polish parliamentary election campaigns	71
Olgierd Annusewicz
Twitter as a space for political self-presentation. Political image management in social media	91
Marzena Cichosz
Skirmishers, or strategies and tactics of harassment of political opponents	113
Mariusz Kolczyński
“Internet hate” as a tool of political image disintegration	128
Krystian Daniel
The defence tactics against discreditation. Case study of Polish presidential campaigns in 1990–2015	144
Daniel Czyżowski, Leszek Porębski
Campaigning in social media. The use of Twitter in the 2015 Polish parliamentary elections	165

Tomasz R. Aleksandrowicz

Looking into the Future: Paradox of Progress: the End of Liberal Democracy? 180

Konrad Szocik, Kateryna Lysenko-Ryba, Dobrochna Minich, Aleksandra Kędzior, Sylwia Banaś, Sylwia Mazur

Potential Challenges for the Future Global Security 195

Jarosław Szymanek

About the Need to Optimize the Law-Making Model 215

Sebastian Kozłowski

Immunity as a Subject of Discussion on the Privileges of Parliamentarians 254

Michał Brzeziński

Remarks on Selected Principles of States of Emergency in the Polish Constitution ratified 2nd April 1997 276

Krzysztof Zuba

Brexit: Causes and Potential Consequences of the United Kingdom's Leaving the European Union 287

Anna Siewierska-Chmaj

BREXIT and the Polish Community in the United Kingdom.
Analysis of Anti-Polish Sentiments Through the Prism of Intergroup Relations Theory 314

Authors 327