

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION .....	19
Chapter One
THE PARLIAMENTARY SYSTEM OF GOVERNANCE. THE THEORETICAL DETERMINANTS AND THE POLITICAL-STRUCTURAL PRACTICE .....	27
1. Introduction to the subject matter .....	27
2. The Scandinavian parliamentarism vs. the Westminster one – the substance and characteristic features .....	39
3. The Norwegian parliamentarism – the Scandinavian rule or an exception? .....	55
Chapter Two
THE SHAPING OF SOVEREIGNTY AND THE PARLIAMENTARY SYSTEM OF THE KINGDOM OF NORWAY .....	60
1. From the political history. The path to the collapse of the relation with Denmark .....	60
2. Christian Frederick and the Gathering of the Kingdom ( Riksforsamlingen ) of the year 1814 .....	92
3. The inspirations and rules of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Norway. The November amendment ( Novembergrunnloven ) and the Act on Union ( Riksakten ) .....	103
Chapter Three
THE RELATIONS BETWEEN STORTING AND GOVERNMENT IN TIMES OF THE UNION WITH SWEDEN AND THE INTRODUCTION OF PARLIAMENTARISM .....	131
1. The constitutional standing and relations between Storting and the Council of the State in times of the union with Sweden .....	131
2. The dominance and cooperation between the powers in the federal monarchy .....	155

2.1. The introduction of parliamentarism as a way of governance. The conditions and changes .....	165
2.2. The relations between Storting and the executive power in the years 1885–1905 .....	196

Chapter Four

THE ESSENCE AND NATURE OF THE PARLIAMENTARY SYSTEM

VS. THE DEVELOPMENT OF POLITICAL PARTIES .....	214
1. The genesis and evolution of the Norwegian political parties in the 19 th century .....	214
2. The organisational development of political parties and the alteration of the Norwegian system of political parties .....	221
2.1. The shaping of the system of two dominant parties and its features .....	225
2.2. The fragmentation of political parties in the interwar period and its essence .....	231
2.3. The foundations of the system of the dominant political party. The welfare state reforms .....	238
2.4. The system of stable two-block political parties vs. the parliamentary system .....	248
2.5. The system of fickle two-block political parties after the year 1993 vs. the evolution of parliamentarism .....	262

Chapter Five

THE NORWEGIAN PARLIAMENTARY SYSTEM

– THE STRUCTURAL PRACTICE .....	281
1. The dilemmas and theoretical and practical reservations .....	281
2. The parliament – government relations in the period of 1884–1920. The alternative dominance .....	285
3. The parliamentary system of the adaptive balance (1920–1945) .....	293
4. The stable dominance in the parliamentary system (1945–1965) .....	308
5. The parliamentary system in the period of structural balance (1965–1997) .....	317
6. The Norwegian parliamentary system since the year 1997. Dynamic pragmatism .....	339
7. The election to Storting of the 13 th of September, 2021. The dynamic victorious pragmatism? .....	365

CONCLUSION .....	373
------------------	-----

BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	383
--------------------	-----