

Contents

STUDIES AND ANALYSIS

Kazimierz Michał Ujazdowski

- Political character of the Constitutional Council of the Fifth French Republic and its consequences 9

Sebastian Kubas

- The Crisis of Hungarian Parliamentarism after 2010 during the Progress of Illiberal Democracy..... 23

Izolda Bokszczanin

- Constitutional reform of 2020 reducing the number of members of Parliament in Italy: towards the rationalization of the parliamentary system?..... 42

Joachim Osiński, Izabela Zawiślińska

- The governing bodies of the Folketing and the Storting and their constitutional role 63

Jacek Wojnicki

- Problems of contemporary Bulgarian parliamentarism – institutional and functional issues 82

Artur Olechno, Bogusław Przywora, Jacek Zaleśny

- The dispute over the limits of the European Union's competences – remarks against the background of CJEU case law 97

Joanna Juchniewicz

- The incompatibility (and non-electability) of the function of judge and prosecutor with the parliamentary mandate in Poland 115

Tomasz Słomka

- Participation of the parliament in the elections of the President of the Republic of Poland – traditions and comments de lege ferenda .. 126

Mateusz Nieć

- Parliamentary debate in lawmaking process – technology of politics 141

Grzegorz Kuca

- Parliamentary control of the state budget as a myth about fiscal control..... 157

Elżbieta Gudowska-Natanek

The Supreme Court as an authority of the judicial power appointed to opinions on draft normative acts 176

Dominik Szczepański

Proposals to amend (the) constitution in theoretical reflection Law and Justice 191

Piotr Swacha

Parliamentary political parties in Poland in the face of the climate change issue in the years 2005–2019 (perspective of social networks) 210

Przemysław Żukiewicz

Towards semantics and social networks. Anatol Rapoport’s general system theory and its implications for contemporary political systems research 233