European Integration:
The Challenges Facing Contemporary Europe
Between Populism and Rationalism

Contents

Introduction 9

Antoni Sikoń
The Issue of Ukraine in the 2025 Polish Presidential Campaign:
An Analysis of the Salience of the Ukrainian Topic and the Contexts
in Which It Was Invoked 13

Yuliia Korsunska
The Phantom Border of the Eastern Borderlands in Polish Media Discourse in 2025 36

Wojciech Ćwikowski
A Comparative Discourse Analysis of Populist Parties' Political Programs in the 2024 Elections Using Quantitative Methods 55

Софія Подубінська
Information Factors and Communicative Influences of Ukraine's Cultural Diplomacy in the European Space 80

Kamil Kumor
The Democratic Deficit in the EU and Legal Solutions to Tackle it 93

Богдан Веселовський
Rationalism in EU Law: Can We Safeguard The Rule of Law
Under Conditions of Political Polarisation? 108

Yevhen Luzan
Brexit as a Mirror of the Hungarian Vision of Sovereignty from the EU under the Orbán Government (2010–2026): Between Populism and Pragmatism ... 123

Oleksandr Koptiev
The 2025 Parliamentary Elections in Moldova as a Battlefield Between Russian Propaganda and Aspirations for European Integration 148

Vasylyna-Mykhailyna Burek
EU Strategic Autonomy in the Face of the War in Ukraine: The French Concept and Populist Contestation 163

Sofiia B. Pishchanska
Between Fear and Strategy. From Rationalism to Strategic Diplomacy – New Models of Security in Central and Eastern Europe after 2022 182

Maksym Gardus
Security or Cheap Energy: Socio-Political Factors of Resistance to Sanctions against Russia in Europe 199