
C ontents

From the Editor 19

PART I

The Difficult Road to the Breakthrough in Polish-German Relations, 1989–1991; in the Light of the Most Recent Diplomatic Documents 27

Jerzy Sulek

The Polish Conception of the Normalisation of Relations with the FRG in 1989 29

Jerzy Sulek

Poland's Diplomatic Offensive to End the Polish-German Border Dispute 65

Jerzy Sulek

Poland's Contribution to the Final Peace Settlement in Respect to Germany: Overcoming the Polish-German Border Dispute 97

PART II

The Foundation of Polish-German Relations: the Border on the Oder and Lusatian Neisse and in the Pomeranian Bay 131

Jan Barcz

The Federal Republic of Germany's Confirmation of the Polish-German Boundary as the Basis for New Relations between Poland and United Germany 133

Janusz Symonides

International Law Regulations and the Delimitation of Maritime Areas in the Gulf of Pomerania 169

PART IIITo Europe with Germany 189Andrzej Towpik*

The Federal Republic of Germany and Poland's Accession to NATO: Achievements and Prospects in Shaping European Security 191

Jan Truszczyński

Polish-German Relations and European Integration 211

PART IVThe Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation: Main Premises, Value System and Critique 239Jan Barcz, Witold M. Góralski*

The Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation: Conception, Basic Regulations and Accompanying Agreements 241

Stanisław Sulowski

A Critical View of the 1991 Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation 263

PART VSelected Problems in the Implementation of the Polish-German Treaty of 1991 283Lestaw Koćwin*

Cross-Border Cooperation and the Neighbourhood Policy in Polish-German Relations 285

Aleksandra Trzcielińska-Polus

The German Minority in Poland – Articles 20–22 of the Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation of 1991 318

Piotr Stec

The Problem of Restitution of Cultural Goods and Archival Records in Light of the Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation 339

Robert Traba, Robert Żurek

“Expulsion” or “Forced Resettlement”? The Polish-German Dispute about Notions and Memory 363

Mieczysław Tomala

Care for German War Graves in Poland in Light of the 1991 Polish-German Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation 402

PART VIPolish-German Legal Relations: Open and Closed Issues 417Jerzy Kranz*

Polish-German Legal Controversies – an Attempt at Synthesis 419

| | |
|--|------------|
| Witold M. Góralski | |
| German Restitution and Compensation Claims against Poland: Closure of the Dispute in International Law | 461 |
| Jerzy Sulek | |
| From Individual Compensation to Humanitarian Aid and Financial Benefits; the Balance of Payments from Germany in the Years 1991–2011 for Victims of Nazism in Poland ... | 488 |
| Władysław Czapliński | |
| Reform of the Law on Citizenship in the FRG and its Significance for Polish-German Relations | 520 |
| PART VII | |
| The Dispute over the Status of the Polish Community in Germany | 533 |
| Jan Barcz | |
| Polish Groups in Germany and the German Minority in Poland: the Disparity of Notions in the Polish-German Treaty of 17 June 1991 – Background to Negotiations and Legal Consequences | 535 |
| Jan Sandorski | |
| Problems of the Polish Community within the United Germany: Historical, Political and International Law Aspects | 559 |
| PART VIII | |
| Conclusion: The Path to Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation with Germany | 579 |
| Witold M. Góralski | |
| The Path to Good Neighbourly Relations and Friendly Cooperation with Germany | 581 |
| Biographical Notes on the Authors | 595 |
| Index of Names | 599 |

Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| From the Editor | 19 |
| 1. The way to the breakthrough | 20 |
| 2. Polish-German challenges in light of the Treaty of 1991..... | 21 |
| 3. The aims and premises of this publication | 22 |
| 4. Conception and thematic structure of the publication..... | 23 |

PART I

| | |
|---|-----------|
| The Difficult Road to the Breakthrough in Polish-German Relations, 1989–1991; in the Light of the Most Recent Diplomatic Documents | 27 |
|---|-----------|

Jerzy Sulek

| | |
|--|----|
| The Polish Conception or the Normalisation of Relations with the FRG in 1989 | 29 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 29 |
| 2. Ending the stagnation in relations with Bonn; General Jaruzelski's team in the years 1988–1989 | 30 |
| 3. Rapprochement between Poland and the FRG under Mazowiecki's government in 1989..... | 34 |
| 3.1. The negotiations of representatives Mieczysław Pszon and Helmut Teltschik .. | 35 |
| 3.2. Results of the Pszon-Teltschik negotiations | 37 |
| 4. Dualism in Polish policies toward Bonn in 1989..... | 40 |
| 4.1. Origin of the dualistic attitude of the Polish political elite toward the FRG | 40 |
| 4.2. Removal of party influence on the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as a condition for a unified policy toward Bonn..... | 43 |
| 4.3. Conflict of two policy options toward Bonn: the idealist and the fundamentalist, on the eve of Chancellor Kohl's visit to Poland..... | 46 |
| 5. Chancellor Kohl's visit to Poland: First steps toward the breakthrough in relations with Bonn | 51 |
| 5.1. The fall of the Berlin Wall. A new vision of Polish-German relations..... | 52 |
| 5.2. Results and aftermath of Chancellor Kohl's visit to Poland..... | 55 |
| 6. Polish foreign policy in face of the prospect of German unification | 58 |
| 6.1. Unexpected regress in relations with Bonn: the escalation of the border dispute | 60 |
| 6.2. Closing of ranks in face of 'the German threat' | 61 |
| 6.3. Birth of pragmatism in Polish policy toward Germany | 63 |

Jerzy Sulek

| | |
|---|----|
| Poland's Diplomatic Offensive to End the Polish-German Border Dispute | 65 |
| 1. Introduction | 65 |
| 2. Poland's new diplomatic strategy in face of the prospect of German unification | 66 |
| 2.1. Poland's struggle to participate in the 2+4 Conference | 69 |
| 2.2. Conflict of Polish and West German interests before the 2+4 Conference | 70 |
| 3. The Polish-German contest over a final settlement of the border | 73 |
| 4. Poland's draft of a general treaty with Germany | 76 |
| 5. Negotiations over the border treaty (May 1990) | 79 |
| 5.1. 1st round of the negotiations. Recognition of positions and propositions | 80 |
| 5.2. The 2nd round of negotiations. International law aspects of the border settle- ment with Poland | 80 |
| 5.3. The 3rd round of negotiations. Specific formulation of the provisions of the bor- der settlement | 84 |
| 5.4. Suspension of negotiations over the border settlement: the impasse | 86 |
| 6. Chancellor Kohl's Pyrrhic victory | 87 |
| 6.1. The German parliamentary resolution. Another step toward the break- through | 89 |
| 6.2. The last dispute over appraising the border resolution of the German parlia- ments | 90 |
| 7. Epilogue; the juncture between the border settlement and the peace settlement of the 2+4 Conference | 92 |
| 7.1. Evolution of Poland's position on a general treaty with Germany | 93 |
| 7.2. Position and assistance of the East German delegation in creating the border settlement with Poland | 95 |

Jerzy Sulek

| | |
|---|-----|
| Poland's Contribution to the Final Peace Settlement in Respect to Germany: Overcoming the Polish-German Border Dispute | 97 |
| 1. Introduction | 97 |
| 2. The working meeting of the 2+4 Conference in Berlin, with Poland's participation (4 July 1990) | 98 |
| 2.1. Disputes and controversies at the working meeting in Berlin | 100 |
| 2.2. Preparations for the Paris round of the 2+4 Conference | 104 |
| 3. The Paris round of the 2+4 Conference, with Poland's participation (17 July 1990) | 106 |
| 3.1. Foreground of the Paris round of the 2+4 Conference | 106 |
| 3.1.1. Letter of Chancellor Kohl to Prime Minister Mazowiecki | 106 |
| 3.1.2. Diplomatic whirl before the 2+4 Conference in Paris | 108 |
| 3.1.3. Chancellor Kohl's Caucasian triumph | 110 |
| 3.2. Discussions about the border of united Germany | 111 |
| 3.3. Significance of the Paris Protocol in overcoming the Polish-German border dis- pute | 115 |
| 4. Balance-sheet of the Paris round of the 2+4 Conference for Germany, Poland and the four powers | 117 |
| 4.1. German benefits, concessions and obligations after the Paris round of the 2+4 Conference | 117 |
| 4.2. Polish benefits, compromises and added value after the Paris round of the 2+4 Conference | 119 |
| 4.3. Role of the powers responsible for Germany and Berlin as a whole in resolving the Polish-German border dispute | 120 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 5. The way to the Polish-German Border Treaty and Treaty on Good Neighbourliness | 121 |
| 5.1. Negotiating the Border Treaty with united Germany | 121 |
| 5.2. Negotiation of the Treaty on Good Neighbourliness with united Germany | 125 |

PART II

| | |
|--|------------|
| The Foundation of Polish-German Relations: the Border on the Oder and Lusatian Neisse and in the Pomeranian Bay | 131 |
|--|------------|

Jan Barcz

| | |
|---|-----|
| The Federal Republic of Germany's Confirmation of the Polish-German Boundary as the Basis for New Relations between Poland and United Germany | 133 |
| 1. Introductory observations | 133 |
| 2. The Polish position on the legal status of the Polish-German boundary (summary) | 135 |
| 2.1. The establishment of the Polish western boundary on the Oder and western Neisse rivers in the Potsdam Agreement of 2 August 1945 | 136 |
| 2.2. The GDR's recognition of the boundary on the Oder and western Neisse rivers | 140 |
| 2.3. The FRG's recognition of the boundary on the Oder and western Neisse rivers | 141 |
| 2.4. The discourse | 144 |
| 3. On the eve of German unification | 145 |
| 3.1. The question of the succession of boundary treaties | 145 |
| 3.2. The problem of the four Allied Powers' rights and obligations for Berlin and Germany | 147 |
| 3.3. The issue of the German state's personality under international law | 148 |
| 3.4. The FRG's legal position on the Polish-German boundary | 150 |
| 3.5. The reflection of the FRG's position on the Polish-German boundary in its domestic legislation | 150 |
| 4. Conclusions in view of the German unification process | 153 |
| 5. The 2+4 Treaty and the legal status of Poland's boundary with united Germany | 155 |
| 5.1. The provisions of the treaty concerning the Polish-German boundary | 155 |
| 5.2. Putting an end to the so-called reservation connected with the Peace Treaty | 157 |
| 6. The significance of the Treaty on the confirmation of the existing Polish-German boundary | 161 |
| 7. The effectiveness of the boundary provisions in German domestic law | 163 |
| 8. Conclusion | 166 |

Janusz Symonides

| | |
|---|-----|
| International Law Regulations and the Delimitation of Maritime Areas in the Gulf of Pomerania | 169 |
| 1. Introduction | 169 |
| 2. The Agreement between the People's Republic of Poland and the German Democratic Republic Concerning the Delimitation of Maritime Areas in the Gulf of Pomerania of 22 May 1989 | 173 |
| 3. The FRG's acceptance through treaty succession of the Agreement Concerning the Delimitation of Maritime Areas in the Gulf of Pomerania of 22 May 1989 and that agreement's confirmation in the treaty between the Federal Republic of Germany and the Republic of Poland on 14 November 1990 | 175 |
| 4. Unilateral legal acts of the Federal Republic of Germany inconsistent with the provisions of Article 5 of the 1989 agreement | 177 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 5. Incidents in Poland's territorial sea | 180 |
| 5.1. Exercises of the German Navy in maritime areas including the northern approach channel and mooring area no. 3, constituting a threat to navigation .. | 180 |
| 5.2. The "Cornelia" dredger incident | 182 |
| 5.3. The "Adler-Dania" incident | 183 |
| 6. Final observations | 184 |

PART III

| | |
|-------------------------------------|------------|
| To Europe with Germany | 189 |
|-------------------------------------|------------|

Andrzej Towpik

| | |
|---|-----|
| The Federal Republic of Germany and Poland's Accession to NATO: Achievements and Prospects in Shaping European Security | 191 |
|---|-----|

Jan Truszczyński

| | |
|---|-----|
| Polish-German Relations and European Integration | 211 |
| 1. Introduction | 211 |
| 2. The beginnings of Poland's road to European integration | 212 |
| 2.1. Polish expectations from the FRG | 213 |
| 2.2. The FRG and EC's association agreement with Poland | 215 |
| 2.3. The FRG and Polish accession aspirations | 216 |
| 3. The FRG as the advocate of Poland's accession to the European Union. Myths and reality | 218 |
| 4. The FRG and the accession of East-Central European countries to the Community – identical aims and different interests | 219 |
| 5. Accession negotiations and the Polish-German community of interests | 221 |
| 5.1. The problem of the free movement of labor | 221 |
| 5.2. Problems of the Common Agricultural Policy | 223 |
| 5.3. Budget proposals | 225 |
| 5.4. Problems of acquiring land in Poland by foreigners | 226 |
| 6. The accession process's Polish-German balance-sheet | 227 |
| 7. The Polish-German community of interests in the process of preparing the Constitutional Treaty for Europe | 228 |
| 8. Tensions related to the implementation of the Polish-German community of interests | 231 |
| 9. The Polish-German community of interests and the EU Common Foreign and Security Policy | 232 |
| 9.1. The problem of relations with Russia | 234 |
| 9.2. The problem of relations with Ukraine and other CIS states | 235 |
| 10. Controversies surrounding contributions to the EU budget | 236 |
| 11. Final remarks | 237 |

PART IV

| | |
|--|------------|
| The Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation: Main Premises, Value System and Critique | 239 |
|--|------------|

Jan Barcz, Witold M. Góralski

| | |
|--|-----|
| The Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation: Conception, Basic Regulations and Accompanying Agreements | 241 |
|--|-----|

| | |
|---|------------|
| 1. Origin of the 'large' Treaty | 241 |
| 1.1. General remarks | 241 |
| 1.2. The Mutual Declaration of Mazowiecki and Kohl | 242 |
| 1.3. The Polish conception of the comprehensive Treaty about the bases for mutual relations | 244 |
| 2. Main premises and value system of the Treaty | 246 |
| 2.1. Poland's interpretation of the main points of the Treaty | 246 |
| 2.2. Germany's interpretation of the main points of the Treaty | 247 |
| 2.3. Basic value system of the Treaty | 249 |
| 3. Fundamental provisions of the Treaty of 1991 | 249 |
| 3.1. Aim and premises of the Treaty. Normative framework | 250 |
| 3.2. The status of security and disarmament in the Treaty | 251 |
| 3.3. United Germany's support for Polish integration aspirations | 251 |
| 3.4. Specific areas of cooperation and final provisions | 252 |
| 4. Major controversial issues | 252 |
| 4.1. The German minority in Poland and the Polish community in Germany | 252 |
| 4.2. The problem of payments for former slave and forced labourers | 254 |
| 4.3. Claims 'from Germany against Poland' | 255 |
| 5. Accompanying agreements | 258 |
| 6. Conclusions | 260 |
| Stanisław Sulowski | |
| A Critical View of the 1991 Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation ... | 263 |
| 1. Introduction | 263 |
| 2. Searching for the treaty's origins | 263 |
| 3. The characteristics of the treaty and its most important provisions | 267 |
| 4. The idea of good neighbourliness and friendly cooperation | 270 |
| 5. Criticism of the treaty and difficulties with its implementation | 271 |
| 6. Assessments and suggestions | 280 |
| PART V | |
| Selected Problems in the Implementation of the Polish-German Treaty of 1991..... | 283 |
| Lesław Koćwin | |
| Cross-Border Cooperation and the Neighbourhood Policy in Polish-German Relations.... | 285 |
| 1. Introduction | 285 |
| 2. The beginnings of cross-border cooperation and the emergence of a Polish-German community of interests | 288 |
| 2.1. German cooperation initiatives. The first political problems | 289 |
| 2.2. The specificity of the Stolpe and Gomolka plans | 292 |
| 3. Concepts of three-nation Euroregions | 293 |
| 3.1. The Nysa Euroregion | 294 |
| 3.2. The common Odra economic area | 294 |
| 3.3. Polish fears and doubts | 295 |
| 3.4. Half-way compromise or missed opportunity? | 297 |
| 3.5. Tentative Euroregions. Collecting experience | 299 |
| 4. Basic Euroregional cooperation tasks | 300 |
| 4.1. Financing and coordinating Euroregional cooperation | 301 |
| 4.2. Polish weaknesses in Euroregional cooperation | 302 |

| | | |
|--|---|-----|
| 5. | New cross-border cooperation concepts: New energy and acceleration | 303 |
| 5.1. | The Oder Euroregion | 306 |
| 5.2. | Cross-border cooperation in the “Fourth Republic” | 306 |
| 6. | The Oder Partnership – A new cross-border cooperation structure..... | 308 |
| 6.1. | Prospects of the Oder Partnership..... | 312 |
| 6.2. | The structure of the Network. Aims and tasks | 313 |
| 6.3. | Prospects for the creation of the Oder Euroregion..... | 314 |
| 7. | Summary: Poland in the EU and cross-border cooperation | 315 |
| 8. | Final observations..... | 316 |
| | | |
| Aleksandra Trzcielińska-Polus | | |
| The German Minority in Poland – Articles 20–22 of the Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation of 1991..... | | |
| 1. | Introduction..... | 318 |
| 2. | Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation and the minorities issue | 321 |
| 3. | Treaty provisions on the rights and obligations of the German minority in Poland | 323 |
| 4. | The implementation of the treaty’s provisions in Poland (with particular emphasis on the Opole region)..... | 325 |
| 4.1. | Equality and the ban on discrimination..... | 325 |
| 4.2. | Cultural rights | 327 |
| 4.3. | Educational rights..... | 329 |
| 4.4. | Language rights (bilingualism)..... | 331 |
| 4.5. | Religious rights | 333 |
| 4.6. | The right to participate in public life | 334 |
| 5. | Problems to be resolved | 336 |
| 6. | Conclusions | 337 |
| | | |
| Piotr Stec | | |
| The Problem of Restitution of Cultural Goods and Archival Records in Light of the Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation..... | | |
| 1. | Introduction | 339 |
| 2. | Historical background | 340 |
| 3. | The determination and valuation of the losses to Polish culture | 341 |
| 4. | Cultural property restitution method | 343 |
| 5. | The 1991 Polish-German Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation as an autonomous basis for the liquidation of the effects of the Second World War in the sphere of culture | 344 |
| 6. | The autonomous interpretation of Article 28, section 3 of the Polish-German treaty | 347 |
| 7. | The application of the treaty in practice | 351 |
| 8. | Individual claims from Germany against Poland in light of the Polish-German treaty of 1991 | 354 |
| 8.1. | Precedents concerning the individual vindication of claims in the sphere of culture before the ECHR | 355 |
| 8.2. | State immunity from jurisdiction and the vindication of claims regarding cultural goods in domestic courts | 357 |
| 9. | Chancellor Schröder’s declaration of 1 August 2004 and claims from Germany against Poland about the restitution of cultural goods | 359 |
| 10. | Final conclusion | 361 |

Robert Traba, Robert Żurek

| | |
|---|-----|
| “Expulsion” or “Forced Resettlement”? The Polish-German Dispute about Notions and Memory..... | 363 |
| 1. Introduction. History and memory in the sphere of politics: the year 2010 | 363 |
| 2. Chronological cleavages and participants in the dispute | 365 |
| 2.1. 1990–1993: “The Opening”..... | 366 |
| 2.2. 1993–1998: “The Polish debate” | 367 |
| 2.3. 1998–2002: Politics with regard to history | 370 |
| 2.4. 2002–2008: Culmination | 373 |
| 2.5. 2008–2010: Debate without debate | 380 |
| 3. Narrative strategies in policy with regard to history | 383 |
| 3.1. Expulsions as a taboo | 384 |
| 3.2. Victimology and reconciliation | 388 |
| 3.3. A century of expulsions and Europeanisation | 390 |
| 4. Writing history anew? Conclusions | 396 |

Mieczysław Tomala

| | |
|---|-----|
| Care for German War Graves in Poland in Light of the 1991 Polish-German Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation | 402 |
| 1. Introduction | 402 |
| 2. Caring for German graves in Poland | 405 |
| 3. The achievements of the Memory Foundation | 407 |
| 4. Good and bad reactions to the reconciliation over the graves process | 408 |
| 5. The specific and sensitive nature of our work | 409 |
| 6. The effects of the Memory Foundation’s work | 410 |
| 7. The basis and procedure for establishing cemeteries | 411 |
| 8. Empathy and Polish-German reconciliation | 412 |
| 9. Polish graves in Germany | 413 |
| 10. War graves from the First World War | 413 |
| 11. Reflections on the future and reconciliation | 414 |
| 12. A supplement to the Polish-German reconciliation process | 415 |

PART VI

Polish-German Legal Relations: Open and Closed Issues

417

Jerzy Kranz

| | |
|---|-----|
| Polish-German Legal Controversies – an Attempt at Synthesis | 419 |
| 1. Preliminary observations | 420 |
| 2. Controversies about Poland’s western boundary | 421 |
| 3. The question of reparations..... | 432 |
| 4. Population expulsions and their legal consequences | 443 |
| 5. Citizenship and national minorities | 454 |
| 6. Cultural goods | 459 |

Witold M. Góralski

| | |
|---|-----|
| German Restitution and Compensation Claims against Poland: Closure of the Dispute in International Law..... | 461 |
| 1. Introduction | 461 |
| 2. The 1970 Polish-West German Normalisation Agreement and German property claims against Poland | 463 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 2.1. The Federal Constitutional Court of the FRG on German property claims toward Poland | 465 |
| 2.2. Institutionalisation of individual claims against Poland in West German law . . . | 466 |
| 3. The problem of individual compensation in Polish-West German relations after 1989 | 468 |
| 4. The renewal of German property claims after Poland's accession to the European Union. | 470 |
| 4.1. Poland's reaction to property claims from Germany. | 471 |
| 4.2. Chancellor Gerhard Schröder's declaration on the 60th anniversary of the outbreak of the Warsaw Uprising | 472 |
| 5. Resolution of the dispute over property claims from Germany toward Poland | 473 |
| 6. Important justifications for refusing to recognise the existence of German property claims against Poland | 474 |
| 6.1. The international law argument | 474 |
| 6.2. The relativisation of the rulings of the Federal Constitutional Court. | 476 |
| 6.3. Arguments in reference to the FRG's domestic law | 478 |
| 6.4. The significance of the Barez-Frowein expert opinion in appraising property claims from Germany toward Poland in connection with the Second World War | 479 |
| 7. Countermove of the Expellees' Lobby. | 481 |
| 8. Decision of 2008 of the European Court of Human Rights on individual German compensation actions against Poland. | 483 |
| 8.1. Tenor of the Court's decision. | 484 |
| 9. Breakthrough and challenge. | 485 |

Jerzy Sulek

| | |
|---|-----|
| From Individual Compensation to Humanitarian Aid and Financial Benefits; the Balance of Payments from Germany in the Years 1991–2011 for Victims of Nazism in Poland. | 488 |
| 1. Introduction | 488 |
| 2. Agreement of the governments of the RP and FRG of 16 October 1991: Origin and content | 491 |
| 3. The Foundation for Polish-German Reconciliation as executor of the Agreement of 16 October 1991 | 493 |
| 4. Implementation of the Agreement of 16 October 1991 | 495 |
| 5. Poland's participation in an international agreement with the FRG on 17 July 2000 | 497 |
| 5.1. Principles of payment according to the Agreement of 17 July 2000 | 498 |
| 5.2. Payments for beneficiaries in Poland in the international context (a comparison) | 500 |
| 6. The exchange rate dispute. | 503 |
| 7. Payments for other personal injury | 505 |
| 8. German financial benefits for victims of Nazism in Poland for property losses | 507 |
| 9. German financial benefits for victims of Nazism in Poland on other bases | 509 |
| 9.1. The case of insurance policies – the ICHEIC, humanitarian aid for the Roma | 509 |
| 9.2. Payments from German cities and districts for former forced and slave labourers from Poland | 509 |
| 9.3. Payments of German churches – Evangelical and Catholic – on behalf of victims of Nazism in Poland | 510 |
| 10. What more? Social expectations and political realities | 510 |
| 10.1. No chance of further payments from Germany? | 511 |
| 10.2. The road is closed in official RP-FRG relations | 511 |
| 10.3. The unlikely chances of success for individual efforts | 512 |
| 10.4. Have the possibilities for further ex gratia resolutions been exhausted? | 513 |
| 11. The balance of payments made to victims of Nazism in Poland to this time | 514 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 12. Individual claims victims of Nazism in Poland not included. | 517 |
| 13. A postulate for today – medical and social assistance as the only effective instrument of care for the victims of Nazism in Poland. | 518 |
| Władysław Czapliński | |
| Reform of the Law on Citizenship in the FRG and its Significance for Polish-German Relations. | 520 |
| 1. Introduction. | 520 |
| 2. Origin of the constitutional concept of German citizenship (art. 116 of the Basic Law) and secondary regulations. | 522 |
| 2.1. Rules for being recognised as ‘German’. | 522 |
| 2.2. Rights of a ‘German’ under art. 116 of the Basic Law. | 524 |
| 3. Consequences of possessing East German citizenship. | 525 |
| 4. Consequences of granting citizenship to Germans originating from the former territories of the German Reich. | 526 |
| 5. Consequences of the 2+4 Treaty for the Bonn republic’s law on citizenship. | 527 |
| 5.1. Changes in the law on citizenship after unification. | 528 |
| 5.2. Who can acquire confirmation of citizenship as a ‘displaced person’. | 529 |
| 6. Other conditions for the acquisition of German citizenship. | 530 |
| 7. Final remarks. | 532 |
| PART VII | |
| The Dispute over the Status of the Polish Community in Germany. | 533 |
| Jan Barcz | |
| Polish Groups in Germany and the German Minority in Poland: the Disparity of Notions in the Polish-German Treaty of 17 June 1991 – Background to Negotiations and Legal Consequences. | 535 |
| 1. Introductory observations. | 535 |
| 2. Detailed analysis of the treaty’s provisions. | 538 |
| 2.1. Disparity of notions. | 538 |
| 2.2. Poles living in the FRG who don’t have German citizenship. | 543 |
| 3. The role of domestic law in complementing international minority-protection standards. | 545 |
| 4. The application of the treaty’s provisions in German domestic law. | 547 |
| 4.1. The incorporation (transformation) of the treaty’s provisions into Germany’s domestic law. | 547 |
| 4.2. The role of “general rules of international law” (Article 25 of the FRG’s Basic Law) in assuring protection for Poles in the FRG. | 550 |
| 4.3. The federal structure of the FRG and the application of the measures arising from the treaty. | 552 |
| 5. The possibilities for Polish groups in Germany and their organizations to claim protection. | 554 |
| 6. Final remarks. | 556 |
| Jan Sandorski | |
| Problems of the Polish Community within the United Germany: Historical, Political and International Law Aspects. | 559 |
| 1. Introduction. | 559 |
| 2. Genesis of a Polish minority in Germany. | 561 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 2.1. The Upper Silesian Convention and its significance for the emergence of the Union of Poles in Germany | 561 |
| 2.2. The Polish-German Declaration on the Mutual Protection of Minorities of 5 November 1937. | 562 |
| 3. Liquidation of the Polish minority in the German Reich in 1940. | 564 |
| 3.1. Confiscation of the assets of organisations of the Polish minority in the German Reich | 566 |
| 3.2. Material losses of the organisations of the Polish minority in the German Reich: Attempt at an estimate. | 567 |
| 4. Restitution claims of the Polish minority against the FRG | 568 |
| 5. An outline of the current state of the Polish community and its organisational structures in the FRG. | 570 |
| 6. The Treaty on Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation and the status of the Polish community in the FRG | 571 |
| 7. Activities of Polish community organisations aimed at acquisition of minority status and recognition of financial claims | 573 |
| 7.1. Attempts to awaken aspirations to minority status in the Polish community in Germany | 573 |
| 7.2. Formation of the Polish position on the status of the Polish community in Germany | 575 |
| 8. The Polish-German round table for Polish community issues | 576 |
| 9. Conclusion | 578 |
| PART VIII | |
| Conclusion: The Path to Good Neighbourliness and Friendly Cooperation with Germany. | |
| 579 | |
| Witold M. Góralski | |
| The Path to Good Neighbourly Relations and Friendly Cooperation with Germany. | 581 |
| 1. Origin of the Polish-German conflict | 581 |
| 2. The road to a breakthrough in Polish-German relations | 584 |
| 3. Building the bases for neighbourly relations between Poland and Germany | 586 |
| 4. Overcoming the difficult past | 587 |
| 5. Understanding and the practice and challenge of reconciliation | 589 |
| 6. Poland and united Germany in respect to the European challenges of the 21st century | 592 |
| Biographical Notes on the Authors | 595 |
| Index of Names | 599 |