

CONTENTS

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES AND REMINISCENCES

Stanisław Dubisz : Professor Władysław T. Miodunka (1945–2024)	7
---	---

PAPERS AND DISSERTATIONS

Mental health and language – Radosław Pawelec in conversation with Dr Anna Baran on stigmatization, depression and suicide prevention	12
Małgorzata Ciunovič : „A looney bin in Las Vegas.” The lexeme psychiatryk ‘mental hospital’ as used across the Internet	18
Łukasz Krawczyński : Madman, psychopath, nut job. Media representations of people with mental disorders based on Polish daily press	31
Marek Teler : Suicides of artists and their portrayal in Polish press before WWII	47
Anita Kwiatkowska : Defining suicide in medical and non-medical groups: A report from focus group interviews	62
Małgorzata Osowska : Fighting a demon, mental diabetes, helplessness of a child. Language, self-narrative and overcoming mental health crises	75
Radosław Robert Pawelec : Obłąd (‘madness’) as seen by the four great Polish bards. The lexemes obłąd and obłąkanie , and their derivatives in texts by Adam Mickiewicz, Juliusz Słowacki, Zygmunt Krasiński, and Cyprian Norwid	90

REVIEWS

Józef Porayski-Pomsta : Stanisław Dubisz, Język pism Józefa Piłsudskiego , Dom Wydawniczy „Elipsa”, Warszawa 2023	107
--	-----