

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface in English.	13
Preface.	19
CHAPTER I. Place of occupational pension schemes in the structure of retirement security systems	25
1. The evolution of social protection.	25
1.1. Evolution of the concept of social security in legal regulations.	25
1.2. Concept of social security in the literature on the subject.	28
2. The concept of retirement security	33
2.1. Evolution of the legislation on pension security.	33
2.2. Evolution of the old age risk and changes in pension security systems	38
3. Structure of retirement security systems.	41
3.1. Solutions forming the first pillar (basic)	42
3.2. Solutions forming a second pillar (occupational).	43
3.3. Solutions forming a third pillar (individual)	44
4. Development of the concept of three-pillar pension security.	45
5. Occupational pension schemes and pension systems.	49
5.1. Definition problems.	49
5.2. Evolution of the occupational pension schemes.	52
5.3. Condition and shape of the current occupational pension schemes ..	56
6. Development of Occupational Pension Schemes.	68
6.1. Macroeconomic factors of development of occupational pension schemes.	69
6.2. The European Union regulations	69
6.3. Demographic situation in the European Union and occupational pension schemes.	72
6.4. The role of labour market policies and personnel strategies of companies in the development of occupational pension schemes.	74

CHAPTER II. Occupational pension schemes in the EU	76
1. Social policy models and occupational pension schemes	76
1.1. Social Policy Models in the EU countries	76
1.2. Criteria for creating groups of solutions regarding the functioning of occupational pension schemes	80
2. Occupational pension schemes in different countries	81
2.1. Place of occupational pension schemes in the system of old age income security	82
2.2. Form of membership and the scope of workers covered by occupational pension schemes	83
2.3. Personal and objective scope of occupational pension schemes	87
2.4. Financing	89
2.5. Principles of contribution	91
2.6. Principles of taxation	95
3. Functioning of occupational pension schemes in the EU – included in descriptive groups	97
 CHAPTER III. Occupational pension schemes in the Netherlands, Belgium, Italy and Poland	101
1. Theoretical introduction	101
2. Historical background of occupational pension schemes	102
3. Social dialogue in shaping occupational pension schemes	112
4. Basic principles of construction of occupational pension schemes in concerned countries	117
4.1. Place of occupational pension schemes in the structure of retirement security systems	119
4.2. Personal and objective scope of occupational pension schemes	126
4.3. Organization of occupational pension schemes in the studied countries	133
4.4. Taxation and contributions	139
4.5. Conditions for entitlement and the amount of benefits	144
4.6. Pension assets accumulated in occupational pension schemes	149
5. Summary of comparative analysis of occupational pension schemes in the Netherlands, Belgium, Italy and Poland	152
 CHAPTER IV. Occupational pension schemes in the regulations of the European Union	156
1. Principle of free movement in the EU	156
1.1. Completion of the internal market in the context of European freedoms	156
1.2. EU regulations on the free movement of workers	159
2. Detailed solutions concerning pension rights	163
2.1. The growing role of supplementary pension schemes	163

2.2. Social security coordination and harmonization in the EU.	164
2.3. Directive 98/49/EC.	167
2.4. Directive 2003/41/EC (IORP)	168
2.5. Evaluation of the functioning of directives 98/49/EC and 2003/41/EC. .	170
3. The provisions of Directive 2014/50/EU.	176
3.1. The first draft of the Directive (2005)	176
3.2. The second draft of the Directive (2007)	177
3.3. Final provisions of Directive 2014/50/EU	179
4. Judgments of European Court of Justice (CJEU) relating to the functioning of occupational pension schemes	181
4.1. The CJEU and shaping EU rules.	181
4.2. The CJEU towards sources of EU law	182
4.3. Selected judgments on occupational pension schemes and the free movement of person	183
4.3.1. C-343/08 Commission v Czech Republic	184
4.3.2. C-379/09 Maurits Casteels v British Airways	187
4.3.3. C-67/96 Albany International BV v Stichting Bedrijfspensioenfonds Textielindustrie.	189
4.3.4. C-398/11 Hogan and Others v Minister for Social and Family Affairs, Ireland and Attorney General	192
4.3.5. C-422/01 Skandia and Ola Ramstedt v Riksskatteverket and C-136/00 Rolf Dieter Danner	193
4.4. The impact of the CJEU case law on the status of supplementary occupational pension schemes	195
5. European Union regulations and problems of pension systems and development occupational pension schemes.	197
Conclusions.	201
Bibliography	209
List of tables and charts.	222
ANNEX. Summary information on occupational pension schemes in the EU countries	225