

INSTITUTION OF PRESIDENT IN THE VISEGRAD GROUP COUNTRIES

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	15
Chapter I
CONSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL POSITION OF THE INSTITUTION OF PRESIDENT	21
1. President of the Republic of Poland: evolution of constitutional and legal regulations	21
2. President of Hungary: president as a representative	33
3. President of the Czech Republic: continuation or novelty?	40
4. President of the Slovak Republic: formation of the institution	48
Chapter II
COMPETENCES OF PRESIDENT. CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY REGULATIONS	55
1. President of the Republic of Poland. Changes to the scope of competences	55
1.1. Competences of president as the head of state	55
1.2. Competences in relationships with the Sejm and Senate	61
1.3. Competences in relationships with the Council of Ministers	63
1.4. Competences in relationships with the judiciary	66
1.5. Other competences of president	68
2. President of Hungary. Modification without a change	70
2.1. Competences of president as the head of state	70
2.2. Competences in relationships with the National Assembly	73
2.3. Competences in relationships with the government	75
2.4. Competences in relationships with the judiciary	77
2.5. Other competences of president	77
3. President of the Czech Republic. Limitation of prerogatives.....	79
3.1. Competences of president as the head of state	79
3.2. Competences in relationships with the Chamber of Deputies and Senate	81
3.3. Competences in relationships with the government	84
3.4. Competences in relationships with the judiciary	86
3.5. Other competences of president	87

4. President of the Slovak Republic. Keeping away from the current politics	90
4.1. Competences of president as the head of state	90
4.2. Competences in relationships with the National Council of the Slovak Republic	92
4.3. Competences in relationships with the government	95
4.4. Competences in relationships with the judiciary	97
4.5. Other competences of president	99

Chapter III

ELECTORAL LAW AND SYSTEMS OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION	101
1. Electoral law and election of President of the Republic of Poland	101
2. Procedure of electing President of Hungary	108
3. Electoral law and the applied methods of electing President of the Czech Republic	112
4. Electoral law and election of President of the Slovak Republic	120

Chapter IV

POLITICAL PRACTICE AND RESULTS OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS OF 1989–2020	131
1. Presidential elections in the Republic of Poland	131
2. Presidential elections in the Hungarian Republic / Hungary	155
3. Course of presidential elections in the Czech Republic	163
4. Presidential elections in the Slovak Republic	172

Chapter V

POLITICAL PRACTICE AND ACTUAL POSITION OF PRESIDENTS	191
1. Various faces of presidency. Presidents of the Republic of Poland	191
2. Presidents without power? Presidents of the Hungarian Republic / Hungary	202
3. Facilitators of government formation. Presidents of the Czech Republic	214
4. Towards apolitical presidency. Presidents of the Slovak Republic	229

Chapter VI

ESSENCE AND TYPES OF LIABILITY INCURRED BY PRESIDENT	251
1. President of the Republic of Poland	251
2. President of Hungary	253
3. President of the Czech Republic	255
4. President of the Slovak Republic	258

CONCLUSION	261
-------------------	-----

ANNEX. Persons holding the function of president	271
---	-----

REFERENCES	275
-------------------	-----